If we think this is close (pending anything that comes up next Monday), I can clean up, fix margins, and pull the rest of the background information together in an email so you have everything in one place.

New draft attached, addressing Jennifer's comment below (although it's a bit complicated to explain). Also other minor edits. See what you think.

Hi Jennifer and David,

Attached is a copy of a briefing 1-pager for next week's discussion on the IRIS nominations. See what you think. You'll also get a link to a onedrive page, if that helps for review while people are out of the office. I'm happy to merge edits from emailed copies though.

Note I left a space at the end for any edits that might be needed given NCEA will be briefing the two of you next week on Monday. Someone else will need to take the pen on that.

Along with the one-pager, as background materials I would propose to send the memo that was sent out in Aug 2018, and the most recent round of prioritizations.
